Ms Flore-Anne MESSY is Principal Administrator in the Directorate for Financial and Enterprise Affairs of the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD).

She is responsible of the OECD financial education project in respect of pension, risk, insurance and schools as well as related global events and activities (including the secretariat of the International Network on Financial Education). She also oversees the development of the OECD International Gateway for Financial Education (www.financial-education.org).

Besides, she coordinates, supervises and plans the Global events and activities of the OECD Financial Affairs Division.

She joined the OECD in June 2000 originally to work and develop the activities of the Secretariat for the Insurance and Private Pensions Committee (IPPC). As such, she was in charge of a series of projects in the financial sector including the governance of insurers; the financial management of large-scale catastrophes; work related to ageing and insurance; private financing of health care and the coverage of medical malpractice.

Prior to the OECD she worked at Deloitte and Touche Tomatsu Audit Paris, in the insurance and banking field. She graduated from the institute of political studies of Paris and received her thesis in international economies from University Pantheon-Sorbonne of Paris in 1998.
